

MILITARY PRESS

G254

The BodyKore Signature Series Military Press is the ultimate Commercial Grade free weight shoulder machine. The Military Press comes with two starting points and a safety spotter beam for reps to failure. The rack also comes with a spotter platform for spotters to safely spot the user throughout the exercise. The power cage has 8 weight horns for plate storage with a 1000lb weight capacity, so there's no need to worry about creating additional space for your plates.

The Military Press is 70" tall and has a 4" x 2.5" 11 gauge steel mainframe which allows this piece to fit in at home gyms or garage gyms. The frame is the best quality with gauge steel Oval Tubing and outfitted with a rear expansion. With this sturdy build, the Military Press can withstand daily and repetitive use.
