

WIDE CHEST PRESS

GR805

Our GR805 Wide Chest Press is a commercial wide chest press made for club use. The sleek futuristic design comes in black or silver and is extremely heavy duty and can hold over 1000lbs in total. The wide chest press machine activates the pectoralis major, triceps, and anterior deltoid muscles. The heavy-duty frame made with 11-gauge steel construction coated in a powder finish makes it an amazing piece to upgrade your home gym with.
